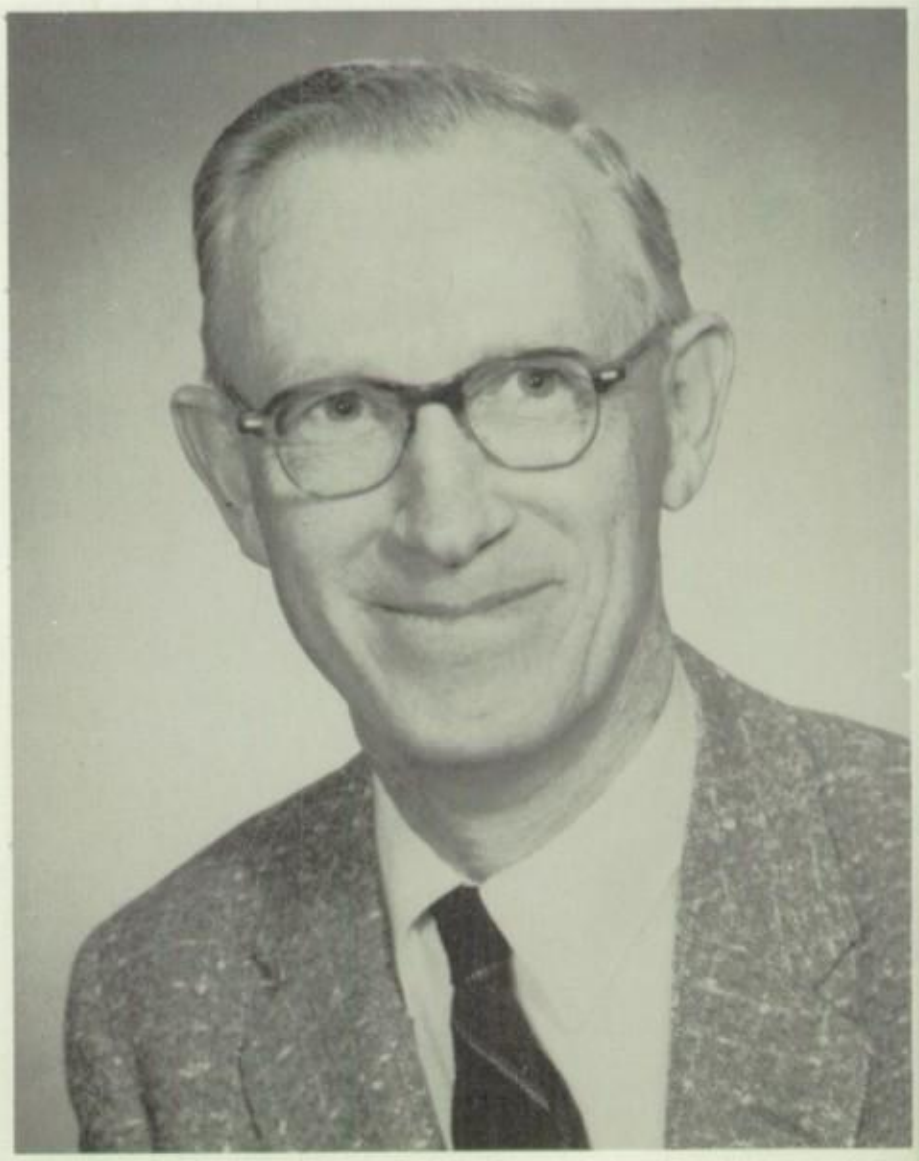
Dedication

We dedicate this yearbook to all our teachers for helping us to realize and achieve our goal--graduation. Without your patience, tolerance, understanding, and wisdom it would have been a hard way to pave. Thank you for doing your part in helping us to reach our goal.

MRS. MARIAN WALTON



MR. JOHN MAC ROY

Appreciation

We, the class of 1958, wish to express our wholehearted appreciation and gratitude to our class advisors for their part in helping us through our high school years.

Portrait Staff

The Portrait Staff of 1958 proudly presents the theme "Knighthood" for its annual production of the yearbook.

Life is filled with many challenges that we must encounter. Now that we are knight errants, we are ready to ride out into the world with shining armor to accept our fate.

Our weapons will consist of knowledge, sportsmanship, and honesty. The King and nobles have taught us how to use these weapons safely and effectively.

We leave behind us fond memories of our progress - from serfs to pages, from pages to squires, and from squires to knights.

Student Council

First row: S. Abel, Secretary; L. Conover, Vice President; J. Alguire, President; K. Regel, Treasurer; M. Nurnberger, Student Advisor. Second row: Miss Witham; L. Beck; G. Bronk, District 7 President; N. Bowerman; P. Luft; R. D'Arcangelis; Mr. Berberich. Third row: R. Watkins, J. Le Roy, N. Morton, M. Humphrey, G. Luft, D. Massari, E. Hoffman.

The Student Council is a representative body elected by the students. By providing a type of student government, it shows that American democracy exists on all levels. Students on the Council gain experience which will aid them when they leave high school, no matter what they may do.

The purposes of the Student Council are many. One is to provide a monitor system to keep order in the halls between classes. The Council has control over the activities of any extracurricular club in the school. Through projects such as student pictures, activity cards, and the magazine campaign, the Student Council is financially assisting such activities as the Portrait, Hilltopics, and Moving-Up Day.

This year, in addition to these activities, the Student Council and the school will act as hosts to the schools of District 7 for the spring Student Council Conference.

During the school year 1957-58, the senior class of Fort Plain Central School has been very active. It started the year by having a group of entertainers known as the "Grand Ol' Opry" put on a performance at the Elementary School. A dance, with music by Mel Smith and his band, was held in October. The theme of the dance was "Senior Skip." This was followed in December by the Senior play, "The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come," which proved to be very successful. During the winter, the seniors sold concessions at all the home basketball games. Other activities were a food sale and a spaghetti supper.

(The senior class wishes to express its sincere gratitude to Leonard Smith for drawing the illustrations throughout the yearbook.)

Pat:

The best of luck to a swell girl and the best friend and nicest girl a boy can ever meet up with. It has really been my pleasure knowing you these past 40 weeks of studyhall. When next year rolls around and school starts again, things are going to be kind of quiet with you not around.

Best Regards
Dave Masker

Cat,
Best of luck to a real swell girl. You + Skip make a wonderful couple + I hope you will always find a great deal of happiness. Remember the fun we had on cheerleading.
(and I do mean fun.)
